

James Drohan – Future Fund, Director Infrastructure and Timberland

James is a Director in the Infrastructure and Timberland team, responsible for Listed Real Assets (global listed infrastructure and property).

James has previously worked in a variety of buy and sell side equity roles across the spectrum of retail and institutional investing.

James holds a Bachelor of Physiotherapy from La Trobe University, is a Chartered Financial Analyst charter holder and a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.