Noah P. Hauser, CFA – Head of Infrastructure Investments

Noah serves as Head of Infrastructure Investments for Nuveen, overseeing strategy, investment process and performance of the firm's infrastructure platform and also serves as a portfolio manager for Nuveen's public global infrastructure strategies.

Prior to joining Nuveen in 2015, Noah worked at Xcel Energy as the director of investor relations. Previously, he was a buy-side investment analyst for an energy-focused, relative value equity strategy at Decade Capital Management, a Millennium Group company. In that role, Noah performed detailed analysis on regulated utilities, independent power producers, pipelines and master limited partnerships. He began his career working as a sell-side equity analyst covering regulated utilities and power companies at Barclays Capital and Lehman Brothers. Noah began working in the investment industry in 2008.

Noah graduated with highest distinction from Emory University's Goizueta Business School with a B.B.A. degree with concentrations in Finance and Accounting. He also holds the Chartered Financial Analyst® designation and is a member of the CFA Institute.
